

Put in the given pre-verb adverb in the correct place (before the main verb and after to be).

1. We have fish for breakfast. (never)
2. John goes to school by bus. (generally)
3. He plays football on Saturdays. (always)
4. It is so dark that I can see. (scarcely)
5. The man is so ill he can walk. (hardly)
6. I'm sorry, Mr Brown has gone out. (Just)
7. I missed the train this morning. (nearly)
8. Hush! The baby is asleep. (almost)
9. I agree. Peter is right. (quite)
10. My grandfather has been abroad. (never)
11. Peter forgets to wind his watch up. (sometimes)
12. In fact, he forgets to put it on. (often)
13. Mr Brown meets his old friends now. (rarely)
14. The London train is late. (seldom)
15. I travel on it. (hardly ever)
16. It is full of passengers. (usually)
17. We have to stand in the corridor. (sometimes)
18. We go to bed after midnight. (scarcely ever)